[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] your [REDACTED] depression [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] seems to have no shape [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] allow depression to have some concreteness in [REDACTED] your daily life.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] you presented a paradox [REDACTED] you felt suicidal and a desire to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] remain [REDACTED] safe.

We explored [REDACTED] providing you with [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] ideations [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] We also explored reducing your access to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] community [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] You are encouraged to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] feel depressed. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] This will enable [REDACTED] isolation [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Kay's hope [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] passed away. Kay told me about [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] inter-generational [REDACTED] trauma [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] as well as [REDACTED]
chronic suicidal ideation [REDACTED] Kay is also struggling with anxiety, [REDACTED] a recent sexual assault [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] borderline personality disorder [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] major depressive disorder [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I am concerned [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I am
recommending [REDACTED] supplements [REDACTED] [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] are too expensive to be afforded at this point in time.

[REDACTED]
anxiety [REDACTED] can be increased by 25 mg every 2-3 weeks and reassessed.

[REDACTED] I recommend [REDACTED] Clonazepam [REDACTED] in the morning and [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] at night [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] for posttraumatic stress disorder [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I
strongly suspect [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] in the future [REDACTED] a new [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] imminent [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] chronic [REDACTED] crisis. [REDACTED]
